Recommended sights

Santiago de Compostela is a UNESCO World Heritage Site since 1985. The conference tour on Wednesday 10th will give you an opportunity to see the cathedral and its surrounding squares, but there are other monuments which in any other town would merit headline mention and which you should try not to miss if you can find some spare time.

- THE CATHEDRAL

Don't leave Santiago without visiting it! The Cathedral of Santiago has evolved with vitality through the years, resulting in today's heterogeneous building of different historical styles and artistic tendencies. It has three doors: Azabachería, Platerías and the one leading to the Pórtico da Gloria from Praza do Obradoiro.

- The two parallel 'rúas': RÚA DO VILAR and RÚA NOVA

See their covered 'soportales' (arcades) and their beautiful houses and palaces. On the Rúa Nova, notice the CHURCH OF SANTA MARÍA SALOMÉ, with a Romanesque doorway and features of Galician rural architecture, like the porch. (There are also interesting shops on the Rúa Nova, see Shopping below).

- THE SQUARE OF SAN MARTÍN PINARIO

Notice its remarkable double stairway leading down to THE CHURCH OF SAN MARTÍN PINARIO. Work on this magnificent Renaissance church started in the late 16th c. The famous Baroque iconostasic altarpiece, added in the 18th c., was designed by Fernando de Casas y Novoa, also responsible for the cathedral's Obradoiro façade.

From the Square of San Martín Pinario you can reach two other interesting 'rúas': the RÚA DA TROIA (notice the CASA DA TROIA, a former student inn) and the RUELA DE XERUSALÉN, originally part of the Jewish quarter.

- THE PAZO DE XELMÍREZ

Located in the Praza do Obradoiro, within the cathedral's precincts, this building from the 12th c. is probably the best example of civil Romanesque architecture in Europe. Notice the kitchen and the grand refectory with realistic scenes of medieval life depicted in the columns' capitals.

- THE COMPLEX OF BUILDINGS AROUND SAN DOMINGOS DE BONAVAL

The Dominican Monastery of San Domingos now houses the ethnographic MUSEO DO POBO GALEGO (Museum of the Galician People; see Museums below). Go inside the Museum (it is free) if only to take a look at the monastery's GOTHIC CHURCH and, in particular, at THE TRIPLE SPIRAL STAIRCASE built by Domingo de Andrade in the 17th c.

Opposite San Domingos is the modern building housing the CENTRO GALEGO DE ARTE CONTEMPORÁNEA (Galician Centre for Contemporary Art, no. 72), the work of the Portuguese architect Alvaro Siza, who also designed the lovely adjacent park on the site of the city's former cemetery. A stroll through the park is a must, as it offers spectacular views of Compostela.

Not far from San Domingos there is a maze of quaint little streets like RÚA DE BONAVAL, RÚA DE SAN PEDRO -the last stage of the Pilgrims' Way before entering the old town- and RÚA DO MEDIO; notice in this latter the enormous chimneys -a characteristic of urban architecture in Compostela.

- HOSTAL DOS REIS CATÓLICOS
Royal Hospital for pilgrims which originated in 1499, in Plateresque style, today a five star hotel.
- The PRAZA DA UNIVERSIDADE and the UNIVERSITY CHURCH
The church was built in the 16th -17th c.
- COLEXIO DE FONSECA
Built between 1525 and 1544 in Plateresque style, it is one of the oldest University buildings, originally the seat of the Schools of Grammar and Theology. It now houses the University's Central Library.
- The ALAMEDA PARK and the PASEO DA FERRADURA
From here you will have splendid views of the cathedral and of the South Campus of the University.
- COLEXIATA DE SANTA MARÍA DO SAR
A fine example of Romanesque architecture going back to the 12th c.
- FACULTY OF JOURNALISM AND MASS COMMUNICATION MEDIA
The white modern building next to the Faculty of Philology is one of the most celebrated designs of the Portuguese architect Alvaro Siza. Do walk inside and admire this fine example of architectural rationalism.

Some museums

- TESOURO E MUSEOS DA CATEDRAL (CATHEDRAL MUSEUM AND TREASURE)
Valuable collections of tapestries, liturgical pieces, relics, archaeological remains, etc. Included in the visit to the Museum are also the cathedral's crypt, the splendid cathedral's cloister, the Library, and the Chapter-Room.
- CENTRO GALEGO DE ARTE CONTEMPORÁNEA (GALICIAN CENTRE FOR CONTEMPORARY ART)
Permanent exhibition of contemporary Galician artists and important temporary exhibitions.
- MUSEO DAS PEREGRINACIÓNS
Located in a 14th c. Gothic palace, it has eight rooms displaying the different aspects of religious pilgrimage throughout history.
- MUSEO DE TERRA SANTA (MUSEUM OF THE HOLY LAND)
Archaeological and documentary material of great religious, historic and artistic value.
- MUSEO EUGENIO GRANELL
The 18th c. Palace of Bendaña is now a museum devoted to surrealist painting. Temporary exhibitions, plus the permanent collection of the Galician surrealist painter Eugenio Granell.
- MUSEO DO POBO GALEGO
Ethnographic museum.

Bus service and taxis

- BUSES to the Faculty run every twenty minutes (buses 5 & 15) from the Praza de Galicia and every hour from the Alameda (buses C2 & C4). On Saturdays bus services are not so frequent. The bus stop at the conference venue is situated on the Avenida de Castelao, near the cafeteria De Vagar. Tickets are paid on board.
- TAXIS are available in Porta Faxeira (next to the Alameda Park) and Praza de Galicia. The fare from the city centre to the Faculty is approx. 6,00 - 8,00 euros. Taxis can be ordered at the following telephone number: + 34 981 569 292.

- UNITENDA
The University shop and bookstore, on Rúa de Xelmírez 2, close to the Praza das Praterías. It has a selection of publications by the University Press of Santiago de Compostela. It is also an excellent giftshop offering a fine collection of miscellaneous articles bearing the University logo.
